

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca

An Evening to Promote Racial Justice

Wednesday, December 2, 2009

Marcus Center for the Performing Arts

Keynote speaker: Tim Wise*

Reception 5:00 p.m. (Cash bar & hors d'oeuvres)

Awards 6:00 p.m.

Speaker 6:30 p.m. (Dessert & coffee served immediately following the presentation)

Reservations:

$50 per person

$20 for students

$15 for student groups of 10 or more

Become an event sponsor!

*Tim Wise is a leading anti-racist writer, speaker and activist. He is the author of four books, the most recent being Between Barack and a Hard Place: Racism and White Denial in the Age of Obama, and has contributed to twenty others. He is also a regular contributor on television and radio programs.

Wise has provided anti-racism training to teachers, medical professionals, journalists, and corporate, government, entertainment, military and law enforcement officials across the country.

2009 Award Winners

The Women's Fund Eliminating Racism Award

WOMEN'S FUND
of Greater Milwaukee

The Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee is a public foundation with a mission to stand for social change through women and girls. Our vision is for a just and fair world for everyone. Our intended impact is to support women-led solutions to critical community issues by engaging women in the power of collective philanthropy, and by supporting robust organizations that address issues that impact women and girls. We are known for our track record of leveraging national resources through matching grant programs, collaborating with local and national organizations to bring high quality leadership training to local women, and our social change grantmaking focus on social and economic justice and leadership development through a gender lens.

Wisconsin's Pink Shawl Initiative Empowering Women Award

Wisconsin Pink Shawl Initiative

The Wisconsin Pink Shawl Initiative's mission is to raise awareness and educate the American Indian community and people worldwide about breast cancer. The organization serves as a resource for those seeking advice, education, and direction on breast care health. Through educational workshops, awareness events, community outreach, and mentor training, members of the Wisconsin Pink Shawl Initiative live by their motto: dream the cure.